

Draft Land Development Ordinance Ready for Review

FILED UNDER: Implementation

The initial draft of a growth-guiding Land Development Ordinance (LDO) for Thompson's Station is now available for community review.

Those who participated in well-attended workshop sessions last spring will see lots of familiar ideas. So take a bow for all your hard work.

Here's what happens next:

The LDO draft goes through the usual public review processes until a final version goes before the Board of Mayor and Alderman (BOMA). First steps in that process get underway next week with joint work sessions by the BOMA and the Town's Planning Commission.

The first of the two sessions will be on Wednesday, August 5, at 5:30 p.m. at the Community Center, 1555 Thompson's Station Road West. The second will be on the following day, Thursday, August 6, also at 5:30 p.m. at the Tennessee Equine Hospital, 1508 Thompson's Station Road West.

Both meetings are open to the public.

If you're looking to catch up on the process that got us to this point, check out the diary reports preceding this one. And you can get a quick background on the project here.

Thanks again for the enthusiastic collaboration that helped us shape this first LDO draft. Please keep it going through your input in person or in the comment sections below these diary posts.

We'll be updating progress in these web pages as we move forward.

JOIN THESE 0 CONTRIBUTIONS

Ground Rules: Welcome, and thanks for your interest. We believe in the power of respectful community conversation, which is why participants here are asked to login via Facebook, Twitter, Google or Disqus or to provide email when posting as a guest. To keep our conversation on track, know that contributions may be moderated based on relevance or decorum, but will typically not be edited on the basis of their ideas. In short, the Golden Rule rules.

Make your voice heard. We look forward to the conversation.